7:30 A.M. – 8:30 A.M. | 1 CE

SESSION 3

“The Future of Dentistry: How 5 Key Trends Will Reshape Dental Practices in the Next 10 Years”

with Brittany Flynn, Health Policy Institute

FRIDAY, APRIL 11

8:30 A.M. - 9:30 A.M. | 1 CE

Dentistry is going through an important transition. There is a generational shift occurring among dentists, with Baby Boomer cohorts being replaced upstream by Millennials and GenZ-ers who are in fundamentally different practice models and have different mindsets. Larger health care reform, as well as a shift in patient mindset, is bringing notable change to demand for dental care as well. Moreover, the shortcomings of the dental insurance model bring major pain points for both providers and patients. With multiple forces colliding, the profession is at a turning point – even an identity crisis – and there is a need for strong vision and leadership to chart a new course. The status quo is simply not sustainable. This interactive, data-driven discussion will explore key trends in reshaping dentistry and debate the possible paths forward for the profession. We will focus on trends in Nebraska whenever data is available. Either way, prepare to be uncomfortable.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Identify key big picture trends that are bringing change to dental practices in the United States and Nebraska.
- Explore how practice modality is changing over time and how trends in Nebraska compare to other states.
- Identify alternative paths for the dental profession, as well as the opportunities they bring to early career dentists.

SPEAKER

SESSION 4

“Supercharging Your Dental Career: From Early Stage to High Growth... and Beyond”

FRIDAY, APRIL 11

9:00 A.M. – 12:00 P.M. | 3 CE

12:00 P.M. | LUNCH AND ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION

(Reserved for dental students and early career dentists practicing ten years or less)

Your dental career is filled with many important decisions. Should you own a practice or just earn a strong income as an associate? If you want to be the boss, should you buy or start from scratch? Would you like to own multiple practices? Do you dream of being a speaker, mastering an aspect of dentistry, and educating your colleagues? If you own a practice, how do you give it a boost when it stalls?

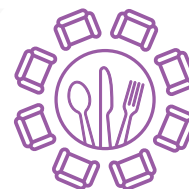

Dentists are quite fortunate to be able to take their careers down multiple potential paths, but that means we are faced with the tough question: When is the right time for the next step?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Interpret data on the dental profession’s current economic landscape, and what it means for you.
- Use a framework for building your unique business model, however you choose to practice.
- Understand the pros and cons of associateship versus ownership, start-up versus purchase, and small versus group practice.
- Navigate associateships and explore alternative career pathways.

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION AND LUNCH IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE PRESENTATION

(Reserved for dental students and early career dentists practicing ten years or less)

Friday, April 11, 2025

SESSION 4 | EARLY CAREER DENTIST CONTINUING EDUCATION & LUNCH

Continuing Education Presentation – 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

Round Table Lunch – 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m.

CO-SPONSORED BY:

The NDA Early Career Council is thrilled to welcome nationally known speaker, Dr. Chris Salierno, who will present his program, “Supercharging Your Dental Career: From Early Stage to High Growth and Beyond.” Dr. Salierno will share multiple pearls of wisdom during this three-hour presentation.

As an early career dentist, or a soon-to-be dental school graduate, we know that you have a lot on your plate whether it is considering a new practice, loans to pay back, or finding the perfect life/work balance. The NDA Early Career Dentist Council wants to engage with each of you and help show you the value that organized dentistry can add to you both personally and professionally. Having a community to turn to means a great deal.

Following the continuing education we invite dental students and early career dentists (those practicing ten years or less) to join us for lunch and a round table discussion.

Let's choose to connect with each other on April 11, 2025!
